

Publishing Addiction Science:

A Guide for the Perplexed

3rd Edition

Edited by: Thomas F. Babor, Kerstin Stenius, Richard Pates, Michal Miovský, Jean O'Reilly, and Paul Candon

The International Society of Addiction Journal Editors (ISAJE) announces the publication of the third edition of Publishing Addiction Science: A Guide for the Perplexed.

Publishing Addiction Science is a comprehensive guide for addiction scientists -- especially novice researchers -- facing the complex process of publishing in scholarly journals. Written by an international group of addiction science journal editors and their colleagues, Publishing Addiction Science tackles such issues as writing research articles and systematic reviews, choosing a journal, responding to reviewers' reports, becoming a reviewer, and ethical issues in addiction science publishing. The third edition features updated chapters enhanced by new training exercises and practical examples to illustrate the main points of each chapter. It also includes new material on the history of addiction science, careers in addiction science, and guidance for clinician-scientists.

Praise for the first edition:

"For those who have long wished for a Bible of addiction publishing, it has arrived."

William White in Alcoholism Treatment Quarterly

"The book benefits from very accessible language and an easy, readable style that should make it much appreciated by young researchers and those in developing countries where English is not the primary language."

Bob Huggan in European Science Editing

Publishing Addiction Science is co-sponsored by the International Society of Addiction Journal Editors, The Society for the Study of Addiction, and the scientific journal Addiction.
