Joseph Cochin Young Investigator Award

This award, presented in memory of a highly esteemed leader in drug abuse research and a former Chairman and Executive Secretary of CPDD, was established in 1986 to recognize research contributions in any facet of the field of drug abuse. It is given annually to an investigator who has not attained his/her 40th birthday by July 1 in the year of the award.

CPDD/NIDA Media Award

This award is given annually to a member of the media who has made major contributions to the public understanding of scientific issues concerning drug use disorders.

Travel Awards

\(Details and deadlines at cpdd.org\)

WHO/NIDA/CPDD International Fellowship Award

International Traveling Fellowships will support the attendance of drug abuse scientists from developing countries.

Stephen G. Holtzman Travel Award for Preclinical Investigators

Established by family and friends of Dr. Holtzman to honor his memory in tribute to his long-time service and dedication to The College on Problems of Drug Dependence, this award will be given annually or biannually to either a predoctoral student or postdoctoral trainee involved in preclinical research related to drug abuse and dependence.

CPDD Travel Award for Early Career Investigators

CPDD will award a number of competitive travel fellowships to predoctoral and postdoctoral individuals and foreign scientists to attend the 2019 Annual Meeting (registration and partial travel expenses.) A luncheon at the Annual Meeting is planned for all 2019 awardees and 2016, 2017 and 2018 recipients of the award.

CPDD Primm-Singleton Minority Travel Award

Applicants must be enrolled in a graduate program. Citizens of the US or permanent visa holders are preferred. They also must be members of an ethnic minority group under-represented in substance abuse research (including, but not limited to, African Americans, Hispanics, Native Americans). Previous awardees and individuals currently supported by NIDA/NIH training grants or individual Predoctoral National Research Service Awards (F31) are not eligible.

FORCE Junior Investigator Travel Award

FORCE (Female Opioid-addiction Research and Clinical Experts) Junior Investigator Travel Awards are provided by a non-profit organization comprised of women with scientific, health policy, and medical expertise in opioid addiction. The awards are intended to foster research conducted by women junior scientists in all areas of opioid abuse research.

NIDA Director's Travel Award

This travel award provides NIDA-supported NRSA fellows, NRSA trainees, and Minority Supplement recipients with financial assistance to attend the CPDD Annual Meeting. Preference is given to those presenting their work.

NIDA Women & Sex/Gender Junior Investigator Travel Award

To foster research on women and sex/gender differences in all areas of drug abuse research, both human and animal, NIDA encourages the submission of abstracts on this topic. Special NIDA travel awards are designated for junior investigators whose CPDD abstract on women or sex/gender differences is accepted for either a poster or oral session.

STAY-TO-THE-LAST-DAY INCENTIVES

The Brunch with Champions

The Brunch with Champions on Wednesday, June 19, 2019 will provide an opportunity for predocs, postdocs, and junior faculty to chat informally with senior investigators and scientific administrators. You must pre-register and attendance will be limited. Use the form found on the CPDD website (cpdd.org) and include your credit card information. Mail or fax the form to CPDD. There is no charge for the brunch; however, if you fail to attend without cancelling at least 72 hours prior to the brunch, a $40.00 charge will be made to your credit card.

The 22nd Annual CPDD Sweepstakes Drawing

The 22nd Annual CPDD Sweepstakes Drawing will be held immediately following the final sessions on Wednesday afternoon. Badges will be collected from scientific registrants seated in the meeting rooms when the sessions end. Several prizes will be awarded, including a 2-night complimentary hotel stay at next year's meeting site, membership dues for one year, and meeting registration for CPDD 2020. You must be present to win, so plan to stay through the end of the meeting.

Loretta Finnegan, M.D., Executive Officer
The College on Problems of Drug Dependence, Inc.
3420 North Broad Street - Rm 324
Philadelphia, PA 19140

The College on Problems of Drug Dependence (CPDD) has been in existence since 1929 and is the longest standing group in the United States addressing problems of drug dependence and abuse. The goal of the annual scientific meeting of the CPDD is to present and disseminate information about ongoing research in the biomedical, behavioral, and social sciences. It brings together basic scientists and clinical investigators from academia, government, and industry. The meeting will contain a balanced mix among state-of-the-art symposia, special lectures, workshops, oral presentations, and poster sessions, all designed to present the latest research findings related to drugs of abuse and drug dependence.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Submitted Papers

All submitted abstracts must be sponsored by a member of CPDD. Fellows, Regular or Corporate Members can sponsor any abstracts, regardless of authorship. Associate Members can sponsor any abstracts on which they are listed as an author. Members-In-Training can submit one abstract on which they are first author but cannot sponsor any other abstracts. There is a 300-word limit for the text of the abstract. No individual can be first author on more than one abstract. Recently completed studies, as yet unpublished, are preferred and any in press work must have a publication date after June 20, 2019.

Subject Matter

Papers can be on any aspect of drug abuse or addiction or on the actions of drugs of abuse. They should contribute to our knowledge of the agents involved in drug abuse, including their molecular biology, chemistry, pharmacological action, biological disposition, abuse potential, safety or clinical usefulness. Contributions concerning research on neurobiology, epidemiology, prevention, public health aspects, or management and treatment of drug dependence are also encouraged.

Categories of Abstract Submission

There are four categories of abstract submissions:

Original Research, Program Descriptions, Theoretical/Commentary, and Literature Review. Original Research includes all prospective and retrospective studies that involve testing a hypothesis by collecting and analyzing data. Program Descriptions are non-experimental abstracts that simply provide a narrative of a research program or a theme that is being pursued. No data are required and the abstract can discuss potential plans for pursuing new research directions. Theoretical/Commentary abstracts can be about any topic related to drug abuse including (but not limited to) policy, trends in the field, treatment strategies, mechanisms of action, and methodological issues. No data are required. Literature Review abstracts should provide a scholarly discussion of a specific topic via a review of the current literature. All categories must include an Aim and a Conclusion and a "Supported by" statement (i.e. funding). Detailed instructions are on the submission website. All submissions will be peer-reviewed, and time, space, and programmatic needs will be considered in decisions of acceptance or rejection, and in assignment to oral or poster sessions. No individual can be first author on more than one abstract.

Abstract Form

On November 1, 2018, the abstract submission link will be open. Go to <https://www.xcdsystem.com/cpdd/> to submit abstracts for the 2019 CPDD Annual Meeting. The submission deadline is December 3, 2018. Late abstracts will not be considered for inclusion in the program. The abstract fee of $50.00 is payable online by credit card. Please read the abstract guidelines and follow the instructions carefully. Failure to follow the instructions will result in rejection of your abstract.

LATE-BREAKING RESEARCH

A limited number of abstracts will be accepted for presentation as 5-minute talks in a session devoted to important late-breaking findings (i.e. after December 3, 2018) at the Annual Meeting. A member of CPDD must be a co-author. Although only 1 abstract of this type is allowed, the same author may have submitted another abstract under the earlier deadline. Abstracts should be 300 characters or less, including authors. In order to have your abstract placed into consideration for this special session, navigate to the CPDD website and use the link for "Late-Breaking Abstracts" or go to \(update link\) by April 15, 2019. There is a late-breaking abstract fee of $25.00 that must be paid online by credit card prior to submitting your Late-Breaking Abstract".

PROGRAM

The program will be available online in advance of the meeting and via the meeting app. Printed copies will be available at the Annual Meeting for those who have ordered them on their registration form.

MEETING SITE & HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

The headquarters hotel will be the JW Marriott San Antonio Hill Country Resort & Spa, San Antonio, TX. All scientific sessions will be held there. Hotel rooms are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis, so make your reservations early, using the hotel link on the cpdd.org website. If using the printed form, send hotel reservations and meeting registrations to FROSC GC&E, 700 Airport Blvd, Suite 360, Burlingame, CA 94010; cpdd@frosch.com or Fax: 650-288-3268

NOMINATIONS FOR CPDD AWARDS

Nathan B. Eddy Memorial Award

This award was established in memory of one of the pioneers in the field of drug dependence following his death in 1973. The award acknowledges outstanding research efforts that have advanced our current knowledge of drug dependence.

Innovator Award

This award will recognize individuals who have made a significant impact in the field of drug addiction through innovative approaches in basic science, clinical research, treatment and prevention. Emphasis will be placed on innovation and impact rather than a lifetime body of work.

Marian W. Fischman Lectureship Award

This award, in memory of Marian W. Fischman, a much admired leader in drug abuse research and an excellent scientist, was first established in 2001 to recognize the contributions of an outstanding woman scientist in drug abuse research.

CPDD Mentorship Award

This award is given yearly to a member of CPDD who has been an exemplary mentor to developing researchers in the field of drug dependence.
